

We need your VOTE to help us determine if FFNHA should devote the afternoon to discussing the proposed statement of national significance and the themes, or if we can move forward and begin to discuss the criteria for FFNHA Partner Sites

Yes, I think the draft themes and statement of national significance are generally on the right track. Let's keep moving and spend our time this afternoon learning more about other criteria programs and brainstorming ways to apply those lessons learned to FFNHA Partner Sites.

No, I think the draft themes and statement of national significance still need a lot of work. Let's slow down and spend the afternoon discussion concerns from the Partnership team regarding the statement of national significance and the themes.

Comments (use back if necessary):

We need your VOTE to help us determine if FFNHA should devote the afternoon to discussing the proposed statement of national significance and the themes, or if we can move forward and begin to discuss the criteria for FFNHA Partner Sites

Yes, I think the draft themes and statement of national significance are generally on the right track. Let's keep moving and spend our time this afternoon learning more about other criteria programs and brainstorming ways to apply those lessons learned to FFNHA Partner Sites.

No, I think the draft themes and statement of national significance still need a lot of work. Let's slow down and spend the afternoon discussion concerns from the Partnership team regarding the statement of national significance and the themes.

Comments (use back if necessary):
