Stories and places within Freedom’s Frontier can be organized by geography. There are four principal river valleys in the heritage area: the Missouri River Valley, Kaw River Valley, Osage/Marais des Cygnes River Valley, and Neosho River Valley. Each has its own unique history and culture. These areas can be organized into cultural watersheds that reflect the power of story.